

McClellan Pushes for Crime Bill

By JOHN CHADWICK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John L. McClellan, pushing for Senate passage of a crime control bill that would supersede several controversial Supreme Court decisions, has accused the high court of coddling criminals.

The Arkansas Democrat said a majority of the court has taken it on itself to amend the Constitution and:

"We have to decide if we have the courage to do something about these self-confessed murderers and rapists that the Supreme Court is disposed to turn loose."

McClellan, in opening debate on the omnibus bill Wednesday, laid heavy emphasis on the section that would make confessions admissible as evidence in criminal trials if voluntarily given.

He called this a vital part of the legislation, but opponents hope to muster the votes to strike it from the bill.

In a 284-page Senate Judiciary Committee report on the bill, 7 of the 16 members joined in a statement protesting efforts to undo Supreme Court restrictions on the use of confessions or other self-incriminating statements.

They challenged the constitutionality of this part of the bill, saying "simplistic answers do us no service in the struggle to find solutions for the complicated problems we face in the war against crime."

McClellan, floor manager for the bill, argued the Supreme Court has imperiled public safety while providing greatly increased protection for criminals.

He referred particularly to the 1966 Miranda decision which barred use of confessions unless a suspect is given the right to have a lawyer with him while being questioned by police.

mittie in closed session Wednesday. A majority of the committee has long criticized U.S. war policy.

Fulbright said he favored the Wednesday offer by Indonesia to provide a sub on which the talks could be held in the international waters of the Gulf of Tonkin.

But he expressed skepticism Hanoi would go along—a view also voiced privately by diplomats in Washington.

Although the White House embraced the proposal with a show of eagerness, these diplomats noted Hanoi already was rejected Jakarta, the capital of Indonesia, as a possible site.

Another reason for their negative view was that the North Vietnamese reportedly told Indonesia recently they still prefer Phnom Penh, Cambodia, or Warsaw for the proposed talks.

Foreign Minister Adam Malik of Indonesia disclosed in Jakarta that he had offered to send a cruiser to the Gulf of Tonkin.

Casualties Increase in Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. casualties in the Vietnam war increased last week, while those reported for the enemy and for South Vietnamese forces were less than the week before.

The U.S. Command in its weekly summary, said 302 Americans were killed and 2,458 wounded last week, compared with 287 killed and 1,458 wounded the week before. Of the wounded last week, 1,383 required hospitalization.

South Vietnamese headquarters said government casualties were 253 killed, 785 wounded and seven missing. The week before the figures were 380 killed, 973 wounded and 30 missing.

Both the U.S. and South Vietnamese commands reported 1,729 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese killed, compared with a revised total for the week before of 2,397. South Vietnamese headquarters said another 143 of the enemy were captured last week.

The report raised to 22,006 the number of Americans killed in action in the war since Jan. 1, 1961, and increased the number of wounded to 137,668. Of the wounded, 72,141 were hospitalized.

It also reported 1,107 Americans missing, or captured, 18 more than last week.

The U.S. Command also reported the number of enemy killed by allied forces since January 1961 now totals 332,032.

my offensive they said was planned. The North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong captured most of Hue in February and held it for weeks.

Hard fighting and artillery duels continued again today on both sides of Dong Ha, headquarters of the U.S. 3rd Marine Division 11 miles south of the demilitarized zone.

The biggest battle was going on two miles northeast of Dong Ha, where the Marines have been locked in combat with North Vietnamese troops since Tuesday.

North Vietnamese gunners opened up with artillery barrages on a unit of the 4th Marine Regiment sweeping the area. Later the enemy tried an unsuccessful counter-attack on a village captured by the Leathernecks two days ago.

A Marine helicopter supporting the Marines was shot down in flames by enemy small arms fire. One man was burned to death and two others were wounded.

South of Hue, enemy gunners fired more than 100 mortar rounds into the Phu Bai military complex, headquarters of the U.S. command center directing tactical operations from Hue to the demilitarized zone. U.S. spokesmen said casualties were light.

The big North Vietnamese surrender came at the end of a three-day battle fought by American paratroopers of the 101st Airborne Division who cordoned off the village of Phuoc Yen, four miles northwest of Hue.

The paratroopers trapped a North Vietnamese battalion while artillery and helicopter gunships hammered the enemy, scribbled as light.

Across the country to the southwest, the flying horsemen of the U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division and a force of South Vietnamese infantrymen continued Operation Delaware in the A Shau Valley.

Wage Hike of 6 Per Cent in Phone Talks
By NEIL GILBRIDE
AP Labor Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A tentative contract agreement providing an increase of 6.5 per cent a year in wages and fringe benefits was announced today in the nationwide strike of some 200,000 telephone workers.

The three-year contract, a pattern for all 600,000 Bell Telephone System Workers, totals 19.58 per cent in higher wages and other benefits over the life of the contract.

It will cost the Bell System more than $2 billion, said President Joseph A. Beirne of the A F L - C I O Communications Workers of America.

Beirne said the strike, the first nationwide telephone walk-out in 21 years, could end early next week after ratification by the strikers.

Union and company negotiating teams in 17 cities worked through Wednesday night in hopes of ironing out final differences.

"We would like to wrap it up," said a spokesman for union President Joseph A. Beirne.

One hopeful note appeared when a Wednesday midnight deadline for nearly 10,000 Virginia telephone workers to join the strike was postponed on a day-to-day basis for up to three days.

Federal officials had privately expressed concern over the possible effects of a Virginia strike on crucial Defense Department telephone links at the Pentagon in suburban Arlington, Va.

Key strike negotiations in New York cover 23,000 telephone installers on strike in some 40 states. The installers, employed by the Bell Subsidiary Western Electric Co., traditionally lead the way in setting new contract patterns.

The reported six per cent wage agreement would raise average installers' pay from $3.27 to about $3.87 by the third year.

Shadows Are Cast on Vote in Indiana

By THOMAS J. DYGDARD
Associated Press Writer
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — The names on the ballot are Branigin, Kennedy and McCarthy.

But two other names—Nixon and Humphrey—are casting shadows over Indiana's Democratic presidential primary May 7.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey publicly proclaimed himself a candidate too late to enter the primary.

But less than two days later he was talking about Indiana Gov. Roger D. Branigin, who's running as a favorite son, Humphrey commented in a nationwide television interview: "If anything I can say will be helpful to him, I want to do that."

Is Branigin a stand-in for Humphrey?

Branigin and Humphrey say no.

But the fact remains that Branigin alone is in a position to knock off Humphrey's two major opponents for the nomination—Sen. Robert F. Kennedy of New York, making his first bid in a major primary, and Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota, trying to keep the momentum of victories in New Hampshire and Wisconsin.

Richard M. Nixon is all by himself on another ballot—the Republican presidential primary—but he's got a fight on his hands holding Republicans' interest in his uncontested race and putting down the Republicans' temptation to record their votes in the white-hot Democratic battle.

Both Branigin and McCarthy have openly courted Republican crossover votes. Technically, a crossover is illegal in Indiana. But, as a practical matter, the enforcement lies in the challenge at the polls, and the challenges have been minimal in the past.

With write-in votes forbidden, Nixon faces no greater threat in Indiana than the possibility of a low vote total resulting from either crossovers or apathy.

His backers figure the entry of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller as an announced candidate may serve to keep Republicans in their own primary.

As for Nixon, he's aimed his campaign guns elsewhere so far. The former vice president's appearances in Indiana today and Friday will be the first since February.

Life in Arkansas

By TOMMY YATES
Associated Press Writer
Have you ever felt that a certain day just wasn't your day? It's kind of like having a mixture of the blues and bad luck, which usually results in one of those excruciating headaches.
Naturally, the headache comes on like gangbusters at an imposing time, and a friend suggests, in all good faith, you take one of those tablets which sucks away all that excess acid, thinking that will solve that problem.
Just how do you get the blues? Well, you start getting the feeling when:
You wake up savoring a hot cup of coffee, only to find you're out of coffee.
You brush your teeth with hairdressing from a tube that looks exactly like the new toothpaste.
You see a picture in the newspaper of a fellow in your graduating class who was the class drip, and he's been elected president of "Money-Making Inc."

You succumb to your wife's badgering to get a new lamp for the living room, only to find out two days later the same lamp was put on sale for half price.

You've been playing fight pools for 15 years and you finally win one only to find out it's a 10-way split.

You have an unlisted telephone number you've forgotten and the operator refuses to give it to you so you can call home.

You have a strange pain in your arm and a fellow worker tells you of an uncle who experienced the same pain and was never able to use the limb again.

You step aside to let a long-haired girl in slacks get on the bus ahead of you. She slides into the only seat left and you find out she's a man.

You come home with three bottles of what you thought to be wine for that special dinner, only to find out you have rum instead.

You hold No. 244 in a drawing for a new color television set and the winner is 245.

You pick up the baby to kiss her before going out of town and she spits up on your shirt. Well, that's life.

Eisenhower Recovering From Attack

MARCH AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower is reported making excellent recovery from his third heart attack since 1955.

"The general's progress to this point has been very encouraging," medical authorities said Wednesday.
The seizure appeared less severe than those in 1955 and 1955, the experts said, adding that there have been no complications since the retired five-star general was flown here by helicopter from his winter home in Palm Desert, Calif., on Monday.

Rural Accident Deaths Higher Than Urban Ratio

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Why are there more fatal accidents of all kinds in rural areas than in cities? There appear to be several reasons for this. One is that farming, lumbering and mining—occupations with special hazards of their own—are done in sparsely populated areas where adequate first-aid measures are not always available. You need not, however, pursue one of the occupations mentioned to be involved in a rural accident, as many a vacationer has found out.

A recent study revealed that over 90 per cent of the persons who were injured in rural surroundings and who died within an hour of the accident died without having been moved to a hospital. Of those injured in cities, the corresponding figure was only 34 per cent. Many persons injured in rural areas between midnight and 6 a.m. were not discovered until several hours after their injury.

In an analysis of a series of deaths due to pesticides it was shown that most of them were caused by ignorance rather than carelessness. The manufacturer's labels have either given incomplete instructions regarding the safe handling of their product or have couched their warnings in technical terms many users do not understand.

In the matter of traffic accidents, little is accomplished by such admonitions as "Drive Safely" and "Don't Be a Statistic." Studies have shown that from 50 to 75 per cent of severe or fatal traffic accidents involved drinking drivers but, more important, they have shown that of these over half were not merely social drinkers but persons who were chronic alcoholics.

Many traffic deaths have been attributed to speed but we now know that the human body can survive accidents at high speed if it is adequately protected by safety belts, collapsible steering wheels and padded dashboards.
There remains, however, the toughest problem of all for persons injured in the country—ambulances equipped not only with the standard accessories but also with a crew of at least two well-trained attendants, one of whom could also be the driver. Small communities might have to subsidize such a service but the saving in lives would make it worth every cent of the cost.

Property Bill Delayed by Council

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Recommendation was delayed Wednesday by the Arkansas Legislative Council on a bill that would allow the state to take over unclaimed property in financial institutions and corporations.

The bill would be a stronger version of a 1949 act that allows the state to take over unclaimed land or property. The new proposal would allow the state to take over utility and bank deposits and holdings in financial institutions that have not been claimed in seven years.

The philosophy of the measure is that unclaimed and abandoned personal property should be preserved and put to use by the state rather than the individual or firm that happens to hold it.

The 1949 act generated no income in 1966 and $5,000 last year. State officials say a conservative estimate of funds the new bill would cause would be about $250,000 a year.

The council also expressed dissatisfaction with state Revenue Commissioner B. Bryan Larey because he had not begun to levy sales tax against banks.

Sen. Robert Harvey of Swifton told Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller Tuesday that the council had been pushing Larey to act "but we can't get much action out of him."

Larey explained to the council Wednesday that there were state and federal constitutional questions involved and his department needed to be sure of its positions before he levied the tax.

Nationally - chartered banks have never paid the sales tax but until last year the state-chartered banks did. A 1967 bill allowed state banks the same exemptions as national banks enjoyed.

Harvey, however, learned in January that some states are taxing federal banks and that this had been sanctioned by the courts. Larey indicated to the council in January that he then would levy the tax on the state bank.

Hundreds to Start Poor People's March

By BILL JOHNSON
Associated Press Writer
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) —

Hundreds of Negroes are starting the Poor People's March on Washington, envisioned by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. as a means of dramatizing the plight of the poor of all races.

As a final preliminary before departure of a bus caravan to Marks, Miss. today, a marble stone bearing a cross and a star is being dedicated here in memory of the slain civil rights leader.

King's widow and the Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy, the man who succeeded King as head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, take part in dedication of the stone, to be placed on the second floor balcony of the Lorraine Motel where King was standing when killed by a sniper April 4.

Then Abernathy leads the first contingent of the Poor People's Campaign on a twisting two-mile route through some of Memphis' worst slums to buses chartered for the trip to Marks.

Both Mrs. King and Abernathy addressed a kickoff rally of about 8,000 Wednesday night and pleaded for a large turnout for both the dedication and the trip to Marks, the town termed by King as the nation's worst rural poverty area.

A brief outbreak of violence flared in Marks Wednesday when about 20 Mississippi highway patrolmen used rifle butts to break up a demonstration by Negro high school pupils outside the Quitman County jail.

Deputy Jack Harrison said about 350 students had started a sit-in to protest the arrest of Willie Bolden, an advance organizer for SCLC.

By the time the trouble had subsided, seven of the SCLC organizers were in jail.

The memorial stone, a 4-foot-by-44-inch slab of white marble weighing 250 pounds, is on a pedestal for the ceremony.

Below a star and cross were King's name, birth date, date of death and his title in SCLC. Then was engraved this inscription from the 37th chapter of Genesis:

"They said one to another, behold, here cometh the dreamer. Let us slay him. We shall see what becomes of his dream."

King came to Memphis to plan another march in support of striking city sanitation workers when he was killed. He led a previous march which erupted into a flurry of window breaking and looting and had been scheduled a mass meeting the night he was slain.

Can't Happen Except in Twisted War

By GEORGE MCARTHUR

DONG TAM, Vietnam (AP) —

In Vietnam you just don't see a couple of hundred husky men out in the middle of nowhere.

But there they were, little white-shirted peasant figures spread out across the dry paddies, all moving intently in the same direction, hastening their steps as the American helicopter swept low.

In his command helicopter, Col. Hank Emerson was exuberant. True, the motley band appeared unarmed but in the delta where Viet Cong arms are hidden in myriad bamboo stands that meant nothing.

"They damn well ought to be in somebody's army," snapped the 42-year-old Vietnam veteran from Milford, Pa., raising belated on the command radio channels as he yelled for troops and helicopters.

Gunships quickly flashed in, riding herd like sheepdogs and firing short bursts on the flanks of the men now scurrying for treelines. Sweating GIs began to drop ahead and behind, under orders not to shoot unless fired upon.

By midmorning 113 "detainees" were squatting in the dust outside the barbed wire of a 9th Division camp in the steaming delta.

The detainees gave mainly the same tale. They were fleeing from some kind of expected attack. The very cohesiveness of their replies raised hopes that perhaps the division had bagged a Viet Cong replacement company on the move—an unheard of feat.

Disappointment was quick.

Within 24 hours interrogation teams had identified seven of the men as Viet Cong soldiers and 29 as civilian offenders, men with improper papers or dodging the draft or fleeing civil charges. But the remaining 77 were classified as just ordinary civilians, and the chief of their district showed up to vouch for them.

A year ago the 77 men would simply have been turned loose to make their way home as best they could.

About one woman in every 200 has some degree of color blindness.

Plum Thinks Four for One Is Startling

By BILL SIMMONS
Associated Press Sports Writer
DETROIT (AP) — "Four for one is pretty hard to believe," said Milt Plum, Detroit's on-again, off-again, sometimes quarterback who became Los Angeles Rams' property Wednesday.

That was his assessment of the deal that sent him, halfback Tommy Watkins, flanker Pat Studstill and 1969 first-round draft rights from Detroit to Los Angeles.

In exchange, the Lions got the Rams' 1969 third-round draft rights and quarterback Bill Munson, who hasn't been able to bump Roman Gabriel out of the starting job at LA but is expected to help straighten out Detroit's signal-calling shortcomings.

Munson reportedly received a long-term contract with an estimated $365,000 over the period. The bundle, plus the players and draft rights involved, was a high price, acknowledged Detroit Coach Joe Schmidt, "but I definitely felt that we needed a new quarterback and in my book Munson was the best one available."

Plum, in an interview, suggested Detroit's quarterbacking problems were compounded by Schmidt's system of alternating his quarterbacks from week to week with little advance word on which would start each game.

"If you're going to go with a quarterback, go with him," Plum, 33, advised. "This business of waiting until Sunday before deciding who will start is bad, not just for the quarterbacks, but for the whole team."

"Pick your man and let him play," Plum said, recalling last season, when he and Karl Sweetan, 25, took turns starting for the Lions.

Munson, 26, played out his option and became a free agent Wednesday.

Studstill, 29, says his knee is sound and there is no reason he can't go all-out.

Studstill, 29, has been hampered by leg injuries. Watkins, 31, gained 361 yards on 106 rushes last season.

Collegians Still Gulp Goldfish

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Remember when collegians were making news by swallowing goldfish instead of holding demonstrations?

Well, some are still gulping goldfish.

Dan Cavuto of Philadelphia staggered off with top honors Wednesday in the annual goldfish swallowing contest at St. Joseph's College by downing 269 wiggles.

The 240-pound champion and runner-up Bill Shuda, also of Philadelphia, twice wiped out the contest committee's supply of fish. Emergency purchases were made at several pet shops.

Fuller called a family meeting. When the Fullers held a family, it's like a congressional session. He and his wife, Joan, have six daughters and a son, ages 7 to 16.

"When I told them about the offer," he said, "they were negative, to put it mildly. I'd say it was a vociferous discussion. My wife, a very petite, beautiful woman, said, 'Peter, the horse is yours. You do what you feel is best. But as far as my going to the Derby, forget it!'"

"Then out of the blue, Peter Jr. got up. He made a speech, no kidding, just like Patrick Henry. 'Daddy,' he said, 'you will not sell Dancer's Image for any price.'"

"That sunk the ship right then."

Hockey Title Playoff in a Deadlock

By LEW FERGUSON

Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. PAUL - MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Minnesota had just shelled St. Louis 5-1 Wednesday night to deadlock the National Hockey League West Division best-of-7 final playoff series at three games each. But Blues' Coach Scotty Bowman had a twinkle in his eye and a wry smile on his lips.

"We lost only one of our last 18 games at home before the playoffs," Bowman said and winked at newsmen. "Let's just hope we keep it up."

The reason Bowman was so chipper following defeat was the fact that the Blues and North Stars return to St. Louis for the final and deciding game of the series Friday night. And in playoff hockey, both Bowman and Minnesota's Wren Blair agree, the home ice is half the battle.

Friday's winner goes against the Montreal Canadiens in the

Stanley Cup championship series opening Sunday afternoon.

"That's the reward for finishing third," Bowman said, recalling how St. Louis won the last two games of the season from Minnesota to wrest third place from the North Stars. "We've had a real good home record."

"It will be tough for us,"

Blair conceded. "I just hope our guys can do it. They've really earned a shot at Montreal the way they've played."

Minnesota popped in two first-period goals Wednesday night, and St. Louis never got any closer than that two-goal deficit the rest of the way.

Owner Spurs Million

By IRA BERKOW

NEA Sports Writer

NEW YORK — (NEA) —

When was the last time you turned down $1 million? For Peter Fuller it was the middle of April.

Peter Fuller is a very wealthy Bostonian who owns the biggest Cadillac agency in America. But even he had to think twice before refusing the money. Actually, he didn't turn it down. His family did.

Fuller is the owner and breeder of Dancer's Image, a three-year-old colt which is one of the favorites in the upcoming Kentucky Derby. The horse was sired by the great

Native Dancer.

He received a phone call from a Kentucky bloodstock firm, which buys and sells thoroughbreds. The firm represented a California man who wanted to buy Dancer's

Image. The offer was $1 million. Fuller would receive one-fourth of that sum in thousand dollar bills on April 16 and the rest, also in thousand dollar bills, on April 18. This was prior to the Wood Memorial race at Aqueduct.

"I pictured all that money in my mind's eye," said

Amateur, Pro Tennis Rift Indicated

LONDON (AP) — The first signs of a rift between professional and amateur tennis threatened today to halt the progress of open tournaments.

American promoter George

MacCall was reported planning to pull his 10 stars out of the Kent Championships at Beckenham—one of the open tournaments scheduled to precede

Wimbledon.

He said the prize money offered was not big enough and started planning a rival tournament of his own at Eastbourne.

Officials of the Kent Championships reacted angrily and complained to the British Lawn

Tennis Association, Laurie Mc-

Callum, organizer of the tournament, said: "I hope we can still sort out the situation."

The International Lawn Tennis Federation sanctioned open tournaments a month ago and allotted four open events to Britain this year.

The first—the British Hard

Court Championships at Bournemouth last week—was won by

Ken Rosewall, one of MacCall's professionals.

MacCall said then he was undecided whether to enter his players in the two events immediately before Wimbledon

—the Kent and the London

Championships at Queen's Club.

McCallum said today MacCall had now told him his players would not compete at Beckenham because the prize money was too low.

There is a first prize of $1,200 in the men's singles and $720

in the women's.

Gloom Fades From Chisox After Wins

CHICAGO (AP) — Gloomi-

ness gradually is fading from the Chicago White Sox and the feeling is that they are about ready to make a move.

They have a long climb up the American League ladder after burying themselves with a 10-game losing streak to start the season.

But Wednesday night, after thrilling the Washington Senators 4-1, the clubhouse atmosphere was one of grins and back-slapping, especially for Luis Aparicio and southpaw Tommy

John.

"We are going to come out of it—there's too much talent out there," cracked Manager Eddie

Stanky.

The Sox now have won a mere three games against 12 losses.

Two of the victories belong to

John.

Aparicio gave John all the support he needed to book a 2-0 record by slamming a two-run homer into the left-field lower deck in the fifth inning.

It was the little shortstop's first of the campaign. He hit a total of four for Baltimore last season.

Chisox Get the Hurling, Win Again

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Suddenly, the flame was back.

Sam McDowell's fastball and his pace against the Oakland Athletics convinced some people he was going to a fire.

McDowell struck out 16 batters—two short of the nine inning major league record—and pitched Cleveland to a 3-1 victory over the Athletics Wednesday night.

And he did it with only 119

pitches in two hours, 11 minutes

—near record time for Mc-Dowell, who usually throws a lot more pitches and takes a lot longer doing it.

"Gentlemen," he marvelled afterwards, "you have just seen the eighth wonder of the world.

Only 119 pitches in two hours, 11 minutes. I never thought I'd see the day."

In other American League action Wednesday night, Tommy

John struck out 12 and pitched

Chicago to a 4-1 victory over

Washington, California downed

Boston 5-3, Detroit shaded

Minnesota 3-2 and Baltimore beat New York 6-1.

In the National League, Philadelphia whacked New York 7-2 in 11 innings. Pittsburgh shut out Chicago 4-0, St. Louis took Houston 3-1 in 12 innings, Cincinnati nipped San Francisco 6-5 and Atlanta took Los Angeles 7-3.

McDowell, who has had arm trouble in the past, had no trouble with the Athletics, who managed just three hits. He retired

20 men in a row after yielding an unearned run in the third inning.

Jim "Blue Moon" Odom was doing a pretty fair job of pitching for the A's. He retired the first 15 Cleveland batters but Chico Salmon's sixth inning single broke that spell and Mc-Dowell's single drove in the indians' first run.

Tony Horton and Duke Sims singled in the seventh and Horton scored the tie-breaking run on a passed ball. Then Salmon's second hit brought Sims in.

The White Sox won their third game and John captured his second with a strong effort against the Senators. He shut

Washington out on three hits over the first eight innings before yielding a run with two out in the ninth.

By then, Chicago was in control with a 4-0 edge—half of it provided by Luis Aparicio's first home run of the season. Frank Bertina was the loser.

Dave Johnson drove in three runs and Boog Powell two as the Orioles whipped the Yankees on rookie Dave Leonhard's five-hitter. Curt Blefary and Brooks Robinson twice keyed

Stottlemyre was tagged with the loss.

Roger Repoz delivered two runs with a ninth-inning single giving the Angels their victory over the Red Sox, who dropped their fourth straight. A double steal by Bobby Knoop and Paul

Schaal preceded Repoz' hit.

SMALL TWO BEDROOM HOUSE WITH A CARPORT

This small two bedroom house was developed to provide adequate space yet minimize construction cost. The living area includes 836 square feet with an additional 210 square feet in the carport and 102 square feet of outside storage.

This is a wood framed house well insulated to provide comfort and utilizes exterior plywood siding.

The bedrooms provide adequate space for furniture arrangement and includes generous closets.

The bathroom is compacted design to minimize space requirements.

The kitchen incorporates an L-shaped work area to provide space for informal dining.

By incorporating by-fold doors between the living room and kitchen-dining area these two rooms can be opened into one large informal area.

The washer and dryer and hot water tank can be located in the outside storage area.

If this small two bedroom house meets your needs, you can obtain a copy of the working drawings, free of charge, from the Hempstead County Agricultural Extension Office by requesting Plan No. 634009.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Perry Mason, who in nine glorious years of weekly television never lost a case, was given a hard time Tuesday night by some eminent legal talent in a CBS news department show called "Trial Lawyer."

The hour program consisted of a series of interviews by Harry Reasoner with five of what he called "the best publicized and best paid" trial lawyers of the nation. Even in that company, the name Perry Mason was to be conjured with—as an active irritant.

F. Lee Bailey, who took an unsuccessful stab at television performing himself for awhile earlier this season, asserted almost testily that Erle Stanley Gardner's fictional character has had "a tremendous influence on our law."

"I have heard jurors tell me over and over again that they were left in a state of concern because, if the defendant didn't do it, who did?" Bailey said. "Now the burden is on counsel to produce the guilty party in all cases where his client is innocent."

Mason, he charged, aborted "every rule of evidence," and added that the public too often thinks that is the way a court really operates.

Later in the program, Edward Bennett Williams was asked by Reasoner if there was any substance to the feeling of many laymen that frequently a decision or verdict depended on "sharp tricks or technicalities."

"I call this the 'Perry Mason Syndrome,'" replied Williams. "I think that Perry Mason stories, Perry Mason-type shows, are responsible for this kind of thinking."

The program, originally scheduled for broadcast last January, consisted almost entirely of talk, some of it suggesting weaknesses in the nation's legal structure.

Bailey, for instance, asserted his belief that "the presumption of innocence is the greatest fiction in American jurisprudence," and said that many feel that a defendant wouldn't be in court "unless he did it—or at least did something."

Melvin M. Belli's main theme was the importance of demonstrating, by means of X-rays and skeletons, the nature of a plaintiff's injuries in negligence cases. He also spoke of his problems in handling the Jack Ruby case in Dallas.

ABC will drop a daytime show, "The Baby Game," and substitute a new soap opera in July.

NBC has signed Julie Andrews for another special—but not to be made until a year from now for showing some time in 1969.

At West Point, the plebe thrives, resigns, fails or is fired; he never "fades away." Poet Edgar Allan Poe and artist James Abbott McNeill Whistler are two who didn't make it.

Church Intrudes on Affairs of State

Thousands of fellow Methodists will join your editor in protesting Monday's action by the United Methodist Church violating our creed that church and state shall stand separately.

Delegates to the church's general conference in Dallas voted to uphold its Board of Missions in withdrawing a 10-million-dollar investment portfolio from First National City Bank of New York because the bank had participated in renewal of a loan to the "racist" government of South Africa.

South Africa is a sovereign state. Its internal policies are its own business. It is grievous enough to have to bear the inept interference of our State Department in another nation's internal affairs—but interference from a private church group is outrageous.

United Methodists claims to be the largest Protestant denomination in the United States. But all Protestantism was founded in opposition to the ancient Catholic church-state establishment—and now a major Protestant denomination attempts to blind its membership to supporting the very thing that the original Protestants denounced.

One of the radicals supporting the attack on the New York bank, the Rev. Roy Nichols of New York, said the action was "consistent with the social creed of the Methodist church." But John H. Rixse, Jr., attorney of Alexandria, Va., spoke for the rest of us when he protested: "It seems incongruous that we should try to determine the operation of a private institution, and blacklist this bank" because of a single transaction.

Transplant Underway at Stanford

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) — A heart transplant is under way at Stanford University Medical Center, a spokesman said today. He said no details could be revealed immediately either as to patient or donor "pending certain clearances from the families."

This is the second heart transplant at Stanford. Dr. Norman E. Shumway and a team of surgeons performed the first on Jan. 6. The recipient, first adult in the nation to receive a human heart from another, was retired steelworker Mike Kasperak, 54. He died of internal hemorrhage and other complications 15 days after the operation.

Long Distance Calls in State Are Cheaper

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — New rate reductions on long-distance telephone calls within Arkansas are now in effect, Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., announced today.

The reductions were approved by the Public Service Commission. The firm said the reductions in intrastate long-distance rates, coupled with the interstate cuts and other rate reductions, will make a total reduction of nearly $1 million to Arkansas customers.

The new intrastate long-distance rates call for reduced evening rates, beginning at 5 p. m. on weekdays. Lower night rates apply for station-to-station calls placed inside the state after 7 p. m. on weekdays and all day on weekends and five special holidays.

The reduced charges also call for a new "early morning" rate of a maximum of only 40 cents for three minutes on station-to-station long-distance calls inside the state. This rate is in effect from midnight to 7 a. m. The company said other reduced rates include elimination of charges for users outside city service areas, reductions in charges for special telephone equipment for customers who are hard of hearing, have weak speech and students who are "homebound."

McElroy Gets 21 Years for Killing Wife

Fred McElroy, 69-year-old retired oil dealer, was found guilty of second degree murder yesterday by a Hempstead County Circuit Court jury which fixed his sentence at 21 years in the Arkansas Penitentiary.

McElroy was charged with first degree murder in connection with the fatal shooting of his wife, Lamour McElroy, 54, November 11, 1967. The prosecution had asked the death penalty.

The all man jury deliberated about an hour reducing the charge and fixing the penalty.

Under questioning by the prosecution McElroy admitted he shot his wife to death but did not give any reason for his action.

Mrs. McElroy, estranged from her husband, was shot at the home of a friend before at least seven witnesses. Receiving a call, city police were entering the house when the shooting occurred.

Negro Must Have Part of White Votes

By MARGARET WILSON
Associated Press Writer
CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP)

The Negro candidate in a three-way race for North Carolina's Democratic nomination for governor needs a heavy Negro vote and considerable white votes to survive Saturday's primary election.

Yet, the candidacy of Dr. Reginald Hawkins of Charlotte, a dentist and minister, has virtually assured a runoff even if he places last in the voting.

Neither of Hawkins's opponents, Lt. Gov. Bob Scott and Mel Broughton of Raleigh, is expected to get a majority of the votes and outright nomination.

On the Republican side, U.S. Rep. Jim Gardner, D-N.C., opposes Jack Stickle, a Charlotte businessman, for the gubernatorial nomination.

There will be no presidential ballot for the North Carolina voter Saturday and the campaign for governor has aroused little interest. Surveys have reported numerous undecided or apathetic voters.

State election officials predict about 800,000 Democrats and 250,000 Republicans will vote in the primary. The 1964 total vote included 769,090 Democrats and 63,815 Republicans.

The larger turnout is expected this year because of the increased number of candidates, particularly for legislative seats and district judgeships.

In his quest for support among white voters, Hawkins has advocated a tax on cigarettes and liberalization of the state's liquor laws.

Maverick Asteroid to Start Hurling Toward Earth at 20,000 mph

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The maverick asteroid Icarus, a plumpish planet about a half-mile in diameter, starts hurtling earthward today at 20,000 miles per hour.

Navy astronomers say it will come within four million miles of earth on June 14, its closest approach since its discovery in 1949. It won't be visible to the naked eye.

The Navy assured there is "no danger of a collision" with earth.

There have been similar reassuring words in recent years from the high echelons of astronomy—all aimed at counteracting reports that rocky Icarus just might be on a collision course with the earth. Such a catastrophe would be equivalent to dropping 100 hydrogen bombs at one time.

But one American astronomer, Dr. Robert S. Richardson, while conceding there's no apparent chance of a collision during Icarus' upcoming visit, has said this might not always hold true as the asteroid keeps re-

Withdraws, to Aid Croxton

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Lewis Johnson Jr. of Fayetteville withdrew Wednesday from the Democratic primary as a candidate for the 3rd Congressional District seat held by Rep. John Paul Hammerschmidt, R-Ark.

Johnson said his withdrawal would allow former state Rep. Hardy Croxton of Rogers, the only other Democratic candidate, "to conserve his money and his energy and devote his full time and efforts" to unseat Hammerschmidt.

Business in Favor of Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) — America's top businessmen overwhelmingly favor Richard M. Nixon for president—and a number bitterly oppose Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, according to a copyright Washington Post survey.

The newspaper said Nixon was favored by 91 of 160 leading executives surveyed. New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller was second with 38 votes and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey third with 24.

Kennedy was the choice of 3 executives, California Gov. Ronald Reagan of 2 and Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy and third party candidate George C. Wallace, 1 each.

The Post said a number of executives' comments showed "an edge of bitterness toward Kennedy"—saying the Democratic candidate was their last choice or they thought him least qualified.

GOPs Making Strongest Bid in Years

By ED SHEARER
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Republican Party is making its strongest bid in 24 years to gain control of the seven state constitutional offices.

When the ticket closed at noon Wednesday, the GOP had placed candidates in each of the seven races, representing their strongest attempt since 1944 when six Republicans went down to defeat with only the office of state treasurer escaping GOP opposition.

Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller and Lt. Gov. Maurice Britt are hopeful of generating enough momentum in their bids for reelection to carry the other five candidates with them.

The last day filing of Sidney C. Roberts of Little Rock for governor on the Republican ticket forced the party to hold a statewide primary but few observers regard him as a serious threat even though there is talk of a possible Democratic crossover in voting in the July primary.

Only two other primary races will be staged by the Republicans, both for positions in the Arkansas House.

The Rev. Daniel M. Bowman, a Negro from Little Rock, will oppose Jimmie M. Brown of Little Rock for Position 3 in the Pulaski-Perry county district while York W. Williams Jr. of Dermott, a Negro, faces R. Gaines Fricke of Lake Village in the Chicot County race for

Committee Formula Puts New Life Into $10 Billion Tax Hike

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee has prescribed a formula to inject new life into President Johnson's $10 billion tax-hike bill—a spending cut proposal which the administration labeled good medicine.

Breaking a weeks-long deadlock, the committee proposed Wednesday that any tax hike be accompanied by a $4 billion cut in actual spending for the fiscal year beginning July 1 plus a $14 billion slash in spending already authorized or appropriated for future years.

The committee's action removed a big roadblock in the tax proposal's progress through Congress, where it has been since last August.

But Sen. John J. Williams of Delaware, senior Republican on a House-Senate conference committee trying to work out a compromise, said the Senate will not pass a tax-spending package that doesn't contain a $6 billion spending cut for next year—a proposal already endorsed by the Senate but opposed by the administration.

Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler, commenting on the Appropriations Committee's recommendations—including a $4 billion spending cut—said the committee would "meet every reasonable demand for expenditure control."

Rep. Melvin R. Laird, R-Wis., said: "The real logjam has been broken here today. This opens the way for the conferees to go ahead."

Laird predicted an eventual compromise which would include a $5 billion spending cut.

The full House continued its budget-cutting drive, passing a bill to appropriate $5,523 billion for the Agriculture Department, $1.4 billion less than the President requested.

Police Probe Rash of Auto Wrecks Here

On East Second there was very heavy damage to an auto driven by Frances Arnold in a collision with another driven by Nettie Jean Jones who was charged with failure to yield the right-of-way. Officer Clark investigated.

Mr. Clark also reported minor damage in a wreck on South Walnut involving cars driven by James A. Glanton and Warren Powell.

On South Elm vehicles driven by Mike Spellman and Lenora Ayvas collided with minor damage. Officer Brown charged Spellman with having no driver's license.

Boyce Plans to Help Boswell

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Sam Boyce of Newport, who had said he was considering entering the 1st Congressional District race, said Wednesday he plans to devote his time to helping Ted Boswell of Bryant in his bid for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

Boyce said he believed Boswell would provide the leadership and direction needed in state government and was the only candidate capable of unifying the Democratic party.

Rusk Urges Foreign Aid Bill Passage

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk, urging congressional enactment of a $2.1 billion foreign-aid bill, says the United States can afford to spend less than one percent of its wealth to help build a safer, more prosperous world.

Rusk told the House Foreign Affairs Committee aid must be continued for South Vietnam and other Southeast Asia nations, as well as for the countries of Latin America and Africa.

His testimony was prepared for delivery today.

"Some say we should postpone or eliminate foreign aid because of the cost of our efforts to help defend freedom in Southeast Asia," Rusk said. "But the freedom and progress of hundreds of millions of other Asians, of 250 million people in Latin America and of 280 million in Africa also engage our concern and are directly related to our own security and well-being."

Development has been gaining momentum in poorer countries but if that trend is reversed the consequences for the peace of the world could be disastrous, he said.

In South Vietnam, said Rusk, the scope of the aid program has been modified as the result of the Viet Cong offensive that began Jan. 31 and funding requirements will be down substantially the rest of this year.

With improved security, however, and recovery of a demand for imports, it is estimated that the $400 million proposed for the next fiscal year will be needed, the secretary testified.

He said South Korea "must increase its military readiness but without impeding its strong economic development effort... both economic and military aid requests have heightened importance," he said.

Thailand has been steadfast and loyal as an ally, Rusk said. The Thai government has countered Communist insurgency with a program of improved social service and strengthened security.

In Laos, Rusk said the military situation has deteriorated in recent months. "It is no overstatement to say that the survival of Laos as an independent nation depends on U.S. help."

In Indonesia, he said, the government of President Suharto can continue to make progress only if the United States continues to help put the sixth most populous nation on a firm economic footing.

Senators Urge U.S. to Accept Warsaw as Site for Peace Talks

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — A number of senators have urged the Johnson administration to accept Hanoi's selection of Warsaw as the site for preliminary U.S.-North Vietnamese talks on ending the Vietnam war.

Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee indicated he and other committee members told Undersecretary of State Nicholas Katzenbach that the United States should lift its objections to the Polish capital as a site for talks.

Another committee member who asked not to be named said he's convinced the United States rejected Warsaw because of objections raised by the South Vietnamese.

Fulbright, asked if South Vietnamese objections are holding up talks, replied: "They are a major reason why we don't—both South Vietnam and South Korea—but especially South Vietnam."

Katzenbach briefed the committee.

Heaviest Fighting Is Raging

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — The heaviest sustained fighting in two months raged through the fourth day today in the northeast corner of South Vietnam. Allied forces reported more than 1,000 enemy troops killed in the battles that continued outside Hue and Dong Ha.

U.S. and South Vietnamese forces reported 81 of their men killed and 395 wounded in the battling since Monday, the biggest eruption since the Viet Cong's Tet offensive in February.

U.S. commanders in the northern sector also reported that the 15,000-man allied force sweeping the A Shau Valley southwest of Hue had cut one of the enemy's main supply and infiltration routes from North Vietnam. But "there are still a lot of nooks and crannies we have not looked into," said Marine Lt. Gen. Robert E. Cushman, commander of U.S. forces in the northern provinces.

In the fighting outside Hue, the enemy dead included a North Vietnamese battalion commander, a battalion executive officer and three company commanders. U.S. paratroopers also reported the surrender of 97 North Vietnamese troops, including five women nurses.

It was believed to be the war's biggest bag of prisoners. The captives said their battalion was to become the occupation force for Hue after another enemy force was defeated.

U.S. Peace Talks Offer Rejected

VIETNAMESE — A spokesman for the North Vietnamese Embassy in Vientiane today rejected the proposal to hold preliminary peace talks with the United States aboard an Indonesian cruiser in the Gulf of Tonkin. The United States had accepted the proposal, but North Vietnamese rejection was expected in Washington.

Terming the ship board talks "unacceptable" to the Hanoi government the North Vietnamese spokesman said the proposal by the Indonesian government "does not meet a single one of President Johnson's own conditions for preliminary contacts."

"It shows that the four conditions set by Johnson are merely a pretext for avoiding preliminary contacts," he asserted. "The United States is looking for one pretext after another because it wants to continue the war."

Recalling Johnson's demand for a neutral site for the talks, the spokesman said "Indonesia is not neutral," an indication that Hanoi considers the Jakarta government pro-Western since President Sukarno's ouster.

"Furthermore, contacts held on a ship would exclude representatives of other countries and of the press and would not permit what President Johnson called 'adequate communications'—conditions set by Johnson himself," the spokesman added.

He said Hanoi still insists the talks be held either in Phnom Penh, Cambodia, or Warsaw, Poland, both of which the U.S. government has rejected.

In Washington, a number of U.S. senators were urging the Johnson administration to accept Warsaw.

Columbia to Study Changes Proposed

By BOB MONROE
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Columbia University's board of trustees, meeting in special session on the campus crisis, agreed today to study basic changes in the university structure and to consult with community leaders on the fate of a controversial gymnasium in nearby Morning Side Park.

The board took the action after conferring with a 12-member executive committee of the faculty named Tuesday and charged in a general faculty resolution with restoring order to the strife-torn Ivy League campus.

The action by the trustees, aimed at two key demands of the protesting students who have disrupted academic life for nine days, was coupled with a request that "all students and faculty resume their scholarly activities so that the presence of the police can be ended."

There was no immediate comment from leaders of the protest.

Columbia had called off classes in most of its branches again today after new fighting flared Wednesday between police and protesting students.

At least 11 persons, including five policemen, were injured when about 30 police charged a chanting, hostile crowd attending a rally by the university gate at Amsterdam Avenue and 116th Street. One student was arrested.

The clash marked the ninth day of disorders in the emotion-charged protest that has virtually paralyzed the university—a day which the administration had set aside for "reason and reflection" by all concerned.

Reagan to Spell Out Position

By JERRY RANKIN
Associated Press Writer
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Republican Gov. Ronald Reagan plans to spell out his position on major issues this political year in a series of papers going to "opinion molders" throughout the nation.

In his first such paper, a 22-page illustrated booklet, he called Wednesday for united public and private enterprise to "guarantee equal rights for all."

"It will not be achieved through mob action or by the torch or the club," Reagan asserted.

Aides said the position papers will be followed by others dealing with law and order, public assistance, economic growth, job opportunities, education and the quality of life in America.

The position papers will be mailed to governors, national and state leaders, businessmen, newsmen and "other opinion molders" in the independent sector," the aides said, and will "point the direction the Reagan administration will take in the days and months ahead."

Reagan, who describes himself only as a favorite son candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, spent last weekend speaking in Idaho and Colorado. In two weeks he leaves on a five-day tour of the South and Midwest.

Meanwhile, Reagan's role on the national political scene is straining his relations with the Democratic-controlled legislature, in which his legislative program is bottled up.

Democratic Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh said Wednesday that the governor "just doesn't know what's going on in this state even with his own program."

"The governor has clearly indicated that he would like to be on the national ticket," Unruh declared. He said Reagan is being used by New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller to prevent former Vice President Richard M. Nixon from going to Miami Beach with the nomination secured.

"I'm not collaborating with anyone," Reagan shot back.

Nearly three-fourths of the executives identified themselves as Republicans, the newspaper said. It said questionnaires were sent to 298 executives, including the entire membership of the prestigious Business Council, which has worked closely with President Johnson, and 180 responded.

Humphrey, the Democratic presidential candidate who fared best in the poll, told a U.S. Chamber of Commerce luncheon Wednesday that some businessmen have even "out-liberalized Hubert Humphrey" and said their help is needed to solve slum problems.

In other political developments:

—Republican candidate Rockefeller takes a swing through Iowa today after calling his Massachusetts primary victory a surprise to him and urging de-Americanization of the Vietnam war.

—Kennedy, pressing his campaign in Indiana's May 7 presidential primary, said the administration should be more flexible on a site for tentative Vietnam peace talks. "We need not worry about whether we will lose face by agreeing to a site we have not suggested," he said in Lafayette.

—McCarthy, whose Democratic presidential campaign began as a protest to Vietnam policy, said in Louisville the issue should not be lost sight of. "This whole question hasn't been put to the people since New Hampshire," he said. "It ought to be again."

—California Gov. Ronald Reagan said in a position paper civil rights must be attained by "time, skill and resourcefulness and capital from all sectors," not "by shrill exaggerations or false promises and it will not be achieved through mob action or by the torch or the club."

Protest IBM Sales to Reds

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Seven members of Young Americans for Freedom protested International Business Machine Corporation's sale of data processing equipment to Communist countries Monday by demonstrating in front of the Federal Building at Little Rock.

Ted Parkhurst, 20, of Searcy, the state YAF chairman, said IBM's Little Rock office was not accessible.

"And then, the federal government has the final say-so about trade with Communist nations," Parkhurst said.

Leaflets condemning American trade with Communist nations were passed out. Parkhurst said there are about 100 YAF members in schools in Arkansas.

Thursday, May 2, 1968

But the ruling also is a trailblazer for rate setting in other areas of the nation. Proceedings covering 93 per cent of the natural gas produced in the United States were in suspension awaiting the Periman decision.

Justice John M. Harlan, declaring the decision, said the FPC acted within its regulatory powers granted by Congress in the Natural Gas Act of 1938.

He said "rate making agencies are not bound to the service of any single regulatory formula" and may make "pragmatic adjustments" to fit each situation.

NOT ENOUGH MATERNITY HOMES

Dear Helen: Like many another girl in trouble, I asked you for the address of a maternity home. You very kindly sent an encouraging letter, listing five homes in my State, and explaining what they offer, how you apply, etc. I'm glad you gave me all five addresses, as four wrote back that they were filled up, with a long waiting list. The other made room for me, but only because another girl cancelled, (she got married) and they could see I WAS desperate. I had no other place to go.

I want to tell you it was no picnic, but it wasn't as bad as I expected. The people at the home were great. We had regular classes given by public school teachers who came to the home. There were counsellors who helped us with our problems, and helped us decide what to do with our lives afterwards.

Some of the girls cried all the time and a few were pretty hard, but most were like me - terribly sorry we'd made the mistake and resolved to make up for it in every way we could.

The fee was based on how much we could afford to pay, which in my case wasn't much. I gave my baby up for adoption, as I felt this was better for him even though it hurt terribly to make the decision. Everything was arranged for me, including my taxi trip to the hospital, and my stay at the home after the baby was born. The counsellor even helped me get a part time job, so I could go back to school.

I just thought I'd tell you this, so you could reassure unwed pregnant girls. The sad thing is: Some aren't as lucky as I was. There just aren't enough homes for unwed mothers to meet the demand.

But instead of wishing they'd build more, I keep hoping the demand drops off. - LEARNED MY LESSON

P.S. The boy? He was a miserable as I was. At first we talked marriage, but it's crazy how fast you fall out of love when you're faced with reality. We knew it wouldn't work. He helped as much as he could with the finances. There wasn't any hate or blame. But there's still a big nothing where my heart used to be. I had to tell you this too: Though the Home eased the pain, it's always waiting there in the quiet moments when you don't make yourself think of something else.

Dear Helen: I've known this boy for about three months and like him a lot. He calls me every night except on week-ends. On week-ends, I sit home and do nothing. So does he - he says. His parents are nice and there are no restrictions.

Why doesn't he ask for a date? - TIRED OF WAITING
Dear Tired: He's either broke or scared.

Why not ask him over to watch television next Saturday night (when your folks are home)? That might break the ice. - H

Dear Helen: I have two questions about dating etiquette: If a boy asks for a date, shouldn't he also make plans where he is taking the girl? My boyfriend says the girl must choose and I say he should.

Also, we have been dating regularly for four months. His birthday came before mine. Should I give him a gift, and what? - PERPLEXED

Dear Per: A boy puts a girl on a terrible spot when he says, "Where do you want to go? It's his money; therefore he should make the plans - but if he's a nice guy, he'll sometimes ask for alternate suggestions.

An inexpensive gift would be appropriate for your boyfriend's birthday. How about shavelotion, a funny game you can play together, a tie clip - something well under $5.00? - H

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help YOU. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Address Helen Bottel in care of The Hope Star.
